

The coat of many colors: A quest for Jewish togetherness

Paintings and drawings by Alexander Vaisman, Israeli artist

April 6-27

Reception: Sunday, April 13, 2-4 p.m.

Goldman Art Gallery, JCC of Greater Washington • 6125 Montrose Rd, Rockville, MD • 301-348-3770

Gallery hours: Sunday-Friday 11 a.m.-5 p.m.

The coat of many colors: A quest for Jewish togetherness

Paintings and drawings by Alexander Vaisman, Israeli artist

April 6-27 1-22 Nisan 5768

Reception: Sunday, April 13, 2-4 p.m.

Goldman Art Gallery
JCC of Greater Washington

301-348-3770

Gallery hours: Sunday-Friday 11 a.m.-5 p.m.

ALEXANDER VAISMAN, born and raised in Eastern Europe, has lived in Israel for many years. His drawings and paintings illuminate the experience of being Jewish, often under difficult circumstances. Vaisman's art is motivated by a strong sense of belonging to a rich and vigorous culture, which was shaped by many diverse contributions in various geographic locations. Like colorful pieces of a puzzle, his works form a multilayered but unified mosaic picture of Jewish past and present, and provide an optimistic glimpse into the future.

MARYLAND STATE ARTS COUNCIL 1967 - 2007

MSAC | 40

VIBRANT Dazzling DIVERSE ENGAGING

Arts and Humanities Council of Montgomery County

This exhibit is made possible by Rachel and David Abraham.

6125 Montrose Road
Rockville, MD 20852
www.jccgw.org